_____)

Plaintiff filed the parties' first stipulation for extension of time (Dkt. 11), requesting a 60-day extension of the due date in which to file her Opening brief. The Court typically does not grant extension longer than approximately 30-days at a time, and usually each party is granted only one extension. In this instance, the GRANTS the extension as requested. However, since 30-days have been added to the stipulated extension at defendant's request, this extension shall count as being granted for defendant as well. Both parties are advised that no further extensions will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.
